

Title

(Times New Roman 12, bold, text in the center)

Whole names of authors (first names, middle and last names) and affiliation of each author
(Times New Roman 12, text in the center)

Abstract

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

Must provide information on the study including the aim, materials and methods, results and conclusion about the priority and about the significance of this study.

No longer than 250 words

Abbreviations and references should not be used

Keywords: maximum 6 words

Introduction

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

To introduce the reader the purpose and significance of the work

Examples how to write citations in the text

(EFSA 2012)

(Steinhauser and Kameník 1998)

(Kameník et al. 1980; Steinhauser et al. 1998)

Material and Methods

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

Include sufficient information for the reader to be able to replicate the work

Techniques described in detail in other publications need not be repeated, major modifications to methods should be clearly described

When using abbreviation, the term must be in full form followed by the abbreviation in parentheses, when it is first used

In case of Latin names, follow the International Rules for Nomenclature

Use SI units

Subtitles can be used if this part is too long

Results and Discussion

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

Do not repeat information from the Materials and Methods

Use tables and figures

Should interpret and evaluate the results clearly and concisely, and be as short as possible

Use citations correctly (ordered according to year)

References should be ordered chronologically in the text

Conclusion

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

Acknowledgements

Should be brief, and acknowledge only direct contribution to the work reported, financial or other support, including grant number

References

(Times New Roman 12, justify)

List of references must be alphabetically ordered

Only references to published work or work actually “in press” are permitted (avoid using “unpublished data” or “personal communications”)

Abstracts from local seminars, conferences, local prints etc. should be limited to a minimum

Include names of all authors, abbreviation of journal according to the style used in the Web of Knowledge; journal volume must be in bold

Examples

Journal: Zoe EF, Moe RP 1982: Meat is red. Meat Sci 21: 18-22

Book: Zoe EF 1970: Meat and meat. Academic Press, Paris, 250 p.

Chapters in book: Zoe EF 1996: Structure of meat. In: Fox VK (Ed.): Meat and Meat. Academic Press, Paris, pp. 201-210

Internet source: Statistical Guidelines. J Vet Internal Med Web site. Available at: www.apls.jkndu.htm. Last modified July 10, 2010. Accessed September 13, 2012

Corresponding author

Include: academic degree, name, institution, address, telephone, fax, e-mail

Tables

Each table must be headed above by a self-explanatory title (without abbreviations) and numbered consecutively

Vertical lines are not permitted, horizontal lines in minimum just to separate title and whole table

All abbreviations used in table must be explained under table

Do not use bold letters

All tables must be referred to in text as Table 1, etc.

Figures (including Graphs and Photographs)

Send the figures in format excel or as jpg, the photographs in original form: jpg, tiff

Each figure (graph, photograph) must be headed under by a self-explanatory title (without abbreviation) and numbered consecutively

All abbreviations used in figure must be explained under figure

Component parts of figures can be labeled A, B, C etc.

Symbols, arrows or letters used in photographs should contrast with the background

All figures must be referred to in text as Fig. 1, etc.

If illustration is reproduced from a published article or other material, a letter of copyright permission must be sent

The manuscript should not exceed maximum 10 standard numbered pages, with 2.5 cm margins and 1.5 spacing throughout, text in Times New Roman with size 12. English language should be checked by a native speaker.